Hiring Unit(s): Jacobs School of Engineering – Department of NanoEngineering

Academic Title: Lecturer with Potential for Security of Employment (LPSEO) or LSOE

Title Series: Other Teaching Faculty (e.g. Lecturers)

Discipline(s)/Area(s) of Interest: Chemical Engineering Education

Description: Lecturer with Potential Security of Employment or Lecturer with Security of Employment

The Department of NanoEngineering (http://ne.ucsd.edu), which administers the Chemical Engineering undergraduate and graduate degree programs for the Jacobs School of Engineering, invites applications for Lecturer with Potential Security of Employment (Lecturer PSOE, which closely parallels the position of an assistant professor on track for tenure) or Lecturer with Security of Employment (Lecturer SOE, which closely parallels a tenured professorial appointment) and is committed to academic excellence and diversity within the faculty, staff, and student body. Candidates should have expertise in undergraduate education in Chemical Engineering, and can provide evidence of effective and innovative teaching. The responsibilities include teaching of the primary undergraduate laboratory courses, core Chemical Engineering classes, improvement of curriculum, help coordination of ABET accreditation activities, development and assessment of new educational initiatives including the application of grants related to the curriculum, and serving as the faculty advisor to the student organizations.

Candidates are expected to have a Ph.D. degree in Chemical Engineering or similar advanced graduate degree, with experience in laboratory work related to the Chemical Engineering field. Successful candidate will be part of the larger NanoEngineering senate faculty, and within that context, will provide academic guidance, leadership, and innovation for the Chemical Engineering undergraduate program. We encourage candidates to send applications as soon as possible. Faculty applications received by December 15, 2013 will be given full consideration. UCSD and the Jacobs School of Engineering are committed to advancing diversity, equity and inclusion. Added consideration will be given to candidates with experience in equity and diversity with respect to: teaching, mentoring, research, life experience, or service toward building an equitable and diverse scholarly environment.

The level of appointment will be commensurate with qualifications and experience in conformance with University of California policies.

Salary: Salary is commensurate with qualifications based on UC pay schedules.

Closing Date: Review of applications will begin on December 15, 2013

To Apply: Please send (i) a letter of interest, (ii) curriculum vitae including the list of publications and professional activities, (iii) a statement of teaching experience, including a summary of leadership efforts, (iv) a statement of contributions to diversity, and (v) the names and email addresses of 3 references. All applicant materials including referee information should be submitted via UCSD Academic Personnel On Line at: https://apol-recruit.ucsd.edu/

AA-EOE: UCSD is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer with a strong institutional commitment to excellence through diversity. http://diversity.ucsd.edu
